Bt. Andrew's Team Wins Eastly from Tux-edo—The De Garmendta and Harriman Foursomes—Announcements by the Mead-owbrock and Essex County Country Clubs

The hitherto successful Tuxedo team met with for the home men won by twenty-five to nothing. For the visitors Rushmore, the strongest player, was only able to tie with Stoddart, while Kent played a fine game and was only two down to Mennies. Dinsmore, however, in some unex-pected way fell down before Ten Eyek. The

W. Bayard Cutting, Jr., who played such a strong game in the Lenox tournament last week, is a member of the Westbrook Goif Club at Islip. In fact, this is the only club he belongs to in the goifing line. R. B. Herr, who won the Alexander cup, is President of the Lakewood Goif Club and very popular in the golfing clans. John Duncan Dunn will soon return to Bournemont Isle of Wight, for the winter. He says the proposed ground for the additional nine holes talked of at Ardsley Casino is the prettiest and most sporting natural place for golf links he has seen in the United States.

The match for the fourth cup presented by E. D. Adams will be played on Thursday at the Beabright Golf Club.

At the Dykers Meadow Golf Club, Fort Hamilton, there will be a members' handicap on Wednesday, the usual monthly event.

There will be an inter-club match at the Baltusroi Golf Club on Saturday, which will formally open the season on this favorite winter links.

Entries for the women's national championship close on Tuesday with H. O. Tallmadge, the Secretary of the United States Golf Association. The championships will be decided on the links of the Morris County Golf Club, beginning on Oct. 6.

Miss Pascoe, the woman champion of Great Britain, who is accompanied by Miss M. E. Phillips, is at present staying at Gullane, Scotland, and enjoying play over the course which is to be the venue of the ladies' championship meeting in May next. Miss Pascoe is more than delighted with Gullane, and thinks it a fortunate selection for the championship, though she is doubtful whether the entries from England will be so numerous as at previous meetings, owing to the distance that has to be travelled.

PROFESSIONALS ON THE LINKS Golf Club's Tournament.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 27.-The annual tournament of the Lenox Golf Club closed yesterday with a contest for professionals for five prizes, as follows: $200, $100, $50, $35, and $15. The winners were: Joseph L. Lloyd of the Essex County Club of Manchester-by-the-Sea, first; George Douglas of the Country Club of Brookline, second: W. Tucker of St. Andrew's, Horace Rawlins of the Sacadaqua Club of Utica, W. Campbell of Myopia, and W. Rickett of Albany were tied for third place and divided the money grand condition. They were so quick that they furnished a test of judgment of the players, and some skilful work was the result. The conditions were thirty-six holes, medal play, eighteen being played before lunch and eighteen after.

Dunn arrived in the morning from New York. and when play began was in poor form. He and Lloyd started the ball rolling. Dunn made the first nine holes in forty-eight strokes. Lloyd went around the first nine in thirty-nine trokes, making a new record for the Lenox links. He avoided all poor lies, and created quite a sensation by his phenomenal plays. He however, fell off slightly on the next nine holes, which he accomplished in forty-three, while it took Dunn three strokes more. Lloyd's total took Dunn three strokes more. Lloyd's total score for eighteen holes was eighty-two and Dunn's ninety-four. Douglas and H. Rawlins, who were counted among the best men in the tournament, went round together. Douglas played brilliantly. He made the first nine holes in forty-three and the second in forty-two. Dunn and Lloyd began the second round, and Lloyd again put up a grand game. He made the first round in forty-five and the last in forty-two. Dunn played well, but it took forty-six to do the second, and he fluished in eighty-nine. Douglas finished in eighty-nine and won second money. W. Campbell, of whom much was expected, made a poor showing with 178 strokes. His first round in the morning was good, as was also that of the afternoon, but he seemed to tire on oth second rounds. The two winning scores follow:

Joseph L Lloyd—

George Douglas The other scores were:

V. Tucker, St. Andrew's. orace Rawlina Utica. V. Campbell, Myopla. V. Rickett, Albany. V. P. Davis, Kewport. V. Shippen, Shinnecock.

THE DANUBE SHIP CANAL

AN EMPEROR AND TWO KINGS TAKE PART IN THE OPENING.

The Channel Cut Through the Iron Gates Which Open the Dannbe to Navigation by Large Bonts from Vienns to the Black Sea-A Most Imposing Ceremony. BUDAPEST, Sept, 27.—The great engineering work of removing the obstruction in the Danub known as the Iron Gates, between Alt-Orsova, in Hungary, and Gladova, in Servia, has been finally accomplished, and to-day the river was opened to navigation with elaborate ceremonies by Emperor Francis Joseph. His Majesty was accompanied by King Carol of Roumania, and King Alexander of Servia. A large number of diplomata, Ministers of State, plain, and in the succeeding eighty miles to the Iron Gates the bed of the river cuts in several places almost at right angles across the strike of beds of crystalline schiets and granites, creating rapids and rocky shoals.

Finally the channel is barred by the Prigada reef, a wall over 350 yards wide, emerging above the surface at low water, running near the left bank for over a mile and then crossing diagonally to the right, just above Sibb. This wall, with smaller reefs, constitutes the Iron Gates proper, and has formed a dangerous cataract throughout its entire length.

The obstructions between Banias and the Iron Gates have been removed and a canal has been excavated through the Prigada and other reefs of the Iron Gates along the southern or Servian side of the river. This canal through the Iron Gates is about two miles long, 200 feet wide, and ten feet deep, and the Danube will and distinguished men were present. Included in the programme was a procession of steamers through the Iron Gates, which afforded proof of how successfully the work of removing the Great crowds from the neighboring towns troops. The day was fine and the ceremonies passed with much éclat.

The completion of the Ship Canal at the Iron Sates opens the lower Danube to navigation by large boats. For forty years the passage of the Iron Gates, at all times difficult and dangerous, has been impracticable for an average of 117 out of the 225 days of navigation in the year for boats drawing five feet, and at no time has the river been navigable between Bazias Parks tied for second place. Time, 6 1-5 seconds.

Oarsmen Chaping the Goose, The goose chase, which was left over from the Union Boat Club regatta, with some twenty entries, took place on the Harlem River yesterday morning, and was won by J. Farrelly, who captured the goose after fifteen minutes of lively swimming. The content was witnessed by many members of the club. The eight-care i barne race between the married and single members of the club, which was also postponed from the same regatta, did not take place. MARY MONROE'S SUICIDE.

George Curtis Wright, to Whom She Had The body of Mary Monroe, who committed suicide at 218 West Twenty-second street on Saturday afternoon, after leaving a letter signed "Mamie." addressed to George Curtis Wright, the father of Countess Zichy, was identified at the Morgue yesterday by a young man who said that she was the daughter of David who said that she was the daughter of David Trunby of Hopatcong, N. J. The young man said that he was her nephew, and that it was to his parents that the dead woman mailed a letter before killing herself. He declined to teil his name to the Morgue keeper. He said that the body would be taken away this morning. Mr. Wright could not be found yesterday. He has lived at 1,426 Broadway, at the Barrett House, and at the Gerard Hotel in West Forty-fourth street. Estelle Redlich, who brought abandonment troceedings against Mr. Wright last June, in the course of which she mentioned the name of Mary Monroe as a woman to whom Mr. Wright had been attentive, lives at the Hotel Barrington, Broadway and Forty-fifth street. The clerk there told a reporter that he had orders from her to bring no cards to her.

At the La Grange restaurant in Thirty-fourth street, Mr. Lagrange said yesterday that the dead woman had lived at his place about a year. Mr. Wright was a constant visitor there, he said, and paid the woman's board bills. She was ill most of the time, and Mr. Lagrange said that he heard from other boarders that she had threatened to board oills. She was ill most of the time, and Mr. Lagrange said that he heard from other boarders that she had threatened to commit suicide. He would have requested her to leave, he said, but for the fact that she was so ill. In April, Mr. Lagrange said, the woman got a legacy of $800 and went to Europe. That was the last he saw of her.

SHOPLIFIER TIRED OF LIFE. Attempts to Poison Herself With Morphine on Being Arrested. A young woman describing herself as Anna Jordan of Pawling, N. Y., was arrested in a department store in Sixth avenue Saturday afternoon for shoplifting. Annie James, the store detective, saw the woman going from counter to counter, taking things and hiding them in varione parts of her dress. When she started to leave the store Detective James had Special Policeman Wund arrest the sheplifter. She was taken to the office and searched.

When searched there were found on her four lace collars, one souvenir spoon, four side combs, one opera glass, eight rings, one box of pins, two pocketbooks, three breastpins, three stick pins, two pairs of cuff buttons, one hat pin, one roll of velveteen binding, and one mosaic pin, the whole worth $29.70 at wholessle rates.

After the woman had been searched she opened a handbag she carried and took out a two-ounce bottle full of morphine and tried to pour it down her threat. It was knocked out of her hand before she succeeded in swallowing its contents. She was held yesterday by Magistrate Crane in the Jefferson Market Court in $500 ball for examination to-day.

spent $1 on Saturday night for a room at the Sinclair House, at 752 Broadway. He was found dead in bed yesterday morning of gas asphyx:

ation. The gas burner in his room was turned on. In his pockets were some bill heads with his name and address, 220 Newark avenue, Jersey City, partly scratched out. There were also some letters written in German, a declaration of intention to become a citizen, and $1.60.
The man's clothing was of poor quality, and his linen was solled. The body was removed to the Morgue.

A Girl Wife Attempts Saleide. street, tried to kill berself yesterday at her Bellevue Hospital a prisoner, and will, it is said, be able to go to court to-day. The girl's husband has been in Italy for six months. She wrote frequently asking him to return, and his failure to comply with her request caused her act.

Killed Himself When Arrested. MERIDIAN, Miss., Sept. 27.-J. C. Kassebaum who assassinated A. S. Barnes, the photographer, in his studio on Thursday night was found in this city last night and placed under arrest, but before he could be removed from the premises in which he was found placed a pistol to his head and fired a bullet through his temple.

BUFFALO, Sept. 27.-The polo tournament will begin to-morrow. The make-up of the teams is as follows:

Buffalo, First Team-Charles Cary, 5 goals; Sew ard Cary, 5; H. T. Davis, 1; Harry Hamlin, 2.
Buffalo, Second Team—John N. Scatcheri, 4;

Gossip of the Courts. "The rubber between Tom Fisherty and J. Durkin for $25 a side will be played out at the Jersey City court_on Cot. 4. Purkin has three games to his credit and Fisherty two. The winner of best of cleven games takes the stakes.

Jersey City experts feel confident that in Mike Egan they have an amateur player second to none in the country. John Egan called at The Sen of fice last sign, and on behalf of Mike challenged Jimmy Bunne to play a home-and-home match for the amateur championabip of the United States.

Pat Barrett has got himself Cown to "stake" weight again and is once more in a matchmaking voin. He thinks it is about time himself and Pat Scott reminded Jers. McMahon and M. O'Donnell that money and men have been waiting for them at the Jersey City court for some time.

Edward McHugh, the delegate from the International Federation of Marine Trades of Great Britain, who arrived here on Saturday on the Etruria, addressed an informal meet ing of sailors resterday afternoon in the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Seamen's Un-South street, near Wall. Afterward he said in relation to what was being done in England and what he intended to do here:

said in relation to what was being done in England and what he intended to do here:

"We have formed on the other side an international federation taking in nearly all the trades in the carrying industry. We now want to establish a connection between the organizations here and the organizations in Europe, and I think it can be done."

Secretary William of the Atlantic Coast Seamen's Union said yesterday that he would write to-day to the Secretary of the National Coast Seamen's Union, who is in Boston, to come here and confer with Mr. McHugh. If he cannot come, McHugh will go to Boston, Recarding the possibility of a wyld-wide strike, McHugh said: "When we have a thorough international organization we won't need such a strike."

Albert Robert Moore to Wed Miss Minnie

Augusta Moorhouse. The engagement of Miss Minnie Augusts Moorhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Moorhouse of 106 East Forty-sixth street, to Al-Moorhouse of 106 East Forty-sixth street, to Al-bert Robert Moore of 498 First street, Brooklyn, has been announced. Mr. Moore is a member of the law firm of Moore & Gasside, and is coun-sel for the Hrooklyn Health Department. He is a member of the Hrooklyn, Montauk, and Logan clube, and of the New York State, New York City and Hrooklyn bar associations. The wed-ding will take place next month.

The annual regatta of the lanthe Canoe Club was held on Saturday afternoon on the Passale River off the boathouse at Woodside. The first event was a sailing race three times over the course. George Douglas, finished first, closely followed by T. B. Palmer. In the second event, paddling open canoes single blades, there were seven starters. Thomas Hale, Jr., of Yonkers was the winner. D. W. C. Pell of the Passaic Club just managed to beat out H. Farmer now be navigable for the largest river steamers from Vienna to the Black Sea.

The formal opening to traffic which occurred yesterday was the crowning feature of the Hungarian Millenium festival. The various nations interested—Hungarians, Servians, Roumanians, &c.—are immensely proud of the new channel, which has been made laboriously and with profusion of dynamite. The whole work cost nearly $10,000,000, and no less than 60,000 cubic metres of pavement, 200,000 of stone, and 250,000 of earth were required for the dyke. There must have been considerable carelessness about the blasting operations, for some 200 workmen lost their lives.

It will undoubtedly develop the Danube traffic to a tremendous extent, for the inconveniences of the obstaule were very serious; it was often necessary to disembark all the passengers and luggage, and take them across either in small boats or by road. The Danube Navigation Company has already built a magnificent new steamer in view of the event. the Passaio Club just managed to beat out H. Farmer of the lanthes for second honors. Four competitors came up to the starting line for the third event, paddling any canoe. The order of the men at the finish was:

George Douglass, Ionthe C. C., first: D. W. C. Pell, Passaio B. C., second; J. Nisson, Kingston C. C., third: Thomas Haie, Jr., Yonkers, fourth. In the fourth event, paddling tandem, open canoes, singles blades, Douglass and Paimer won first place, while Hobart and Nisson and Farmer and Haie tird for second place. The fifth event was the paddling, clab fours. The crews finished as follows: Paimer, Hart, Farmer, and Douglass, lanthe C. C., first: Hobart, Hale, Nisson, and Heles, fianthe C. C., second: Fell. Tolen, handelph, and Riker, Passaio B. C., third: The alath event, paddling, decked sailing canoes, was won by H. S. Farmer, with George Douglass second.
